SAILING CAMPS

SAILING CAMP PB&J FULL PROGRAM

Designed as an introductory, hands-on program, the goal of PB&J is create a love for the outdoors, the water, and sailing! Campers will play, laugh, swim, learn and hopefully develop a love for sailing. Each PB&J class starts with three rules: have fun, wear a lifejacket, and listen to the coach. No class Jul. 3.

Ages 4-8	$234/session $39/per class	Columbia Sailing Club
W	Jun. 5-Jul. 31	5:30 P.M.-7:00 P.M.

SAILING CAMP OPTIMIST (UNDER 110 LBS)

Taught on the ubiquitous "Opti" sailboat, this camp teaches the basics of boat handling, sailing fundamentals, seamanship (knots, weather, etc.), sportsmanship, water safety, and a basic introduction to the sport of sailing. Sailors learn the essentials of steering, trimming the sail, and balancing the boat in an exciting, hands-on way. More advanced Opti sailors may sail their boat by themselves—as well as learn how to rig, launch, recover, and properly store their boat and equipment.

SAILING CAMP ADVENTURE SAILING-BIG BOATS (10-17)

This program is taught on big sailboats ranging from 23' to 34' and is the best way to get the feeling of "sailing the high seas." Sailors will learn how to sail as a crew, each having individual responsibilities, but working as a team. They will also discuss basic navigation, trip planning, boat mechanics, and environmental awareness. Weather permitting, day-to-day activities may include long-distance sails, lunch on an island, scavenger hunts, or a visit to the restaurant Liberty on the Lake. This class will build a foundation for lifelong sailors
